DR. TALMAGE CHOOSES THE MAGIC WORD "COME" FOR A TEXT.

Imperial, tender and all persuasive Scriptures. It stands at the front gate lurch. of the Bible as in my first text, inviting antediluvians into Noah's ark, and it stands at the other gate of the Bible as in my second text, inviting the postdiluvians into the ark of a Saviour's mercy. "Come" is only a word of four and other table supplies, and found a letters, but it is the queen of words, and kettle on the are ready for the tea. Sometimes it nothing in the house?' she said 'My prays, sometimes it tempts and sometimes it destroys. It sounds from the door of church and from the seraglios of gates of hell. It is confluent and accrescent of all power. It is the helress of most of the past and the almoner of most of the future. "Come!" You may pronounce it so that all the heavens will be heard in its cadences, or pronounce it so that all the woes of time and eternity shall reverberate in its one syllable. It is on the lip of saint and profligate. It is the mightiest of all solici-tants either for good or bad. "COMES" SOMETIMES WAR. You must remember that in many cases our "Come" has a mightier "Come" to conquer before it has any effect at all. Just give me the accurate census, the statistics, of how many are down in fraud, in drunkenness, in gambling, in impurity, or in vice of any sort. and I will give you the accurate census or statistics of how many have been slain by the word "Come." "Come and click wine glasses with me at this ivory bar." "Come and see what we can win at this gaming table." "Come. enter with me this doubtful speculation." "Come with me and read those intide tracts on Christianity." "Come with me to a place of bad amusement.' "Come with me in a gay bout through underground New York." If in this city there are twenty thousand who are down in moral character, then twenty thousand fell under the power of the word "Come."

I was reading of a wife whose husband had been overthrown by strong drink. and she went to the saloon were he was ing to a maudlin and battered man drowsing in the corner of the barroom. said: "There he is. 'Jim, wake up. here's your wife come for you." And the woman said: "Do you call that my husband? What have you been doing with him? Is that the manly brow? Is that the clear eye? Is that the noble heart that I married? What vile drug have you given him that has turned him into a fiend? Take your tiger claws off of him. Uncoil those serpent folds of evil habit that are crushing him. Give me back my husband, the one with he, as millions of others have been, of the word "Come!" LET US HARNESS THIS WORD FOR

GOOD. Now we want all the world over to harness this word for good as others have harnessed it for evil, and it will draw the five continents and the seas between them, yea, it will draw the whole earth back to the God from which it has wandered. It is that wooing and persuasive work that will lead men to give up their sins. Was skepticism ever brought into love of the truth by an ebullition of hot words against infidelity? Was ever the blasphemer stopped in his oaths by denunciation of blas hemy? Was ever a drunkard weaned from his cups by the temperance lecturer's mimicry of staggering step and hiccough? No. It was: "Come with me to church today and hear our singing." "Come and let me introduce you to a Caristain man whom you will be sure to admire.' "Come with me into associations that are cheerful and good and inspiring; "Come with me into joy such as you never before experienced."

With that word which has much for others I approach you to-day. Are you all right with God? "No," you say, "I think not; I am sometimes alarmed when I think of him; I fear I will not be ready to meet him in the last day; my heart is not right with God." Come then and have it made right. Through the Christ who died to save you, come! What is the use in waiting? The longer you wait the further off you are, and the deeper you are down. Strike out for heaven! You remember that a few years ago a steamer called the Princess Alice with a crowd of excursionists aboard, sank in the Thames, and there was an awful sacrifice of life. A boatman from the shore put out for the rescue, and he had blg boat and he got it so full it would not hold another person, and as he laid

PORT HUDSON, Jan. 15 .- The strikers, who so far have been as a rule acting in an orderly manner, are beginning to display riotous feelings. Crowds of strikers to-day made desperate attacks upon the several railroad stations in this city and immediate vicinity. They pelted the stations with stones until hardly a whole pane of glass could be seen in the windows of these buildings. They also attacked and completely wrecked a large single station. The police at the first sign of the rioting concentrated at convenient points and did their utmost to save the railroad companies' property. The bitterness of feeling on the part of the strikers is increasing daily and there are signs possibly of erious rioting.
